

PPM Global Names Sean Beers as Property Manager for Yamato Office Center in Boca Raton

BOCA RATON, FL – June 10, 2009 – Portfolio Property Management Global, LLC (PPM-Global) announced the appointment of Sean Beers as Property Manager. He will be based in Boca Raton.

In his new position, Mr. Beers has responsibility for all aspects of the daily operations of Yamato I & II Office Center, a 170,000 square foot commercial office complex in Boca Raton, and the 65,000 s.f. Publix at St. Andrews Shopping Center in Port St. Lucie, FL.

Prior to joining PPM-Global, Mr. Beers was an asset, project and property manager for Lund Capital Group, where he managed portfolios of land and rental property investments in Colorado, Florida and Illinois valued in excess of $160 million.

Marsha Bass, president of PPM-Global, said: “Sean has a level of expertise that perfectly fits what we see as the profile of the next generation of property managers – professionals who will essentially bridge the gap between property and asset management – and we are happy to welcome him to PPM Global’s growing team.”

Ms. Bass went on to say that the company is interested in attracting more highly educated and multi-disciplined candidates into the profession. “Sean has experience in managing all aspects of the daily operations of a property but he also has valuable expertise in lease administration, tenant relations and – critically important, especially in this market – he knows how and where to add value to the asset,” Bass added.

Mr. Beers graduated with a major in Finance and a concentration in Real Estate from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. He is currently studying as a Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) and will receive his designation this fall.
