Jones Lang LaSalle Deepens Tenant Rep Team in San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6, 2009 – Kevin Brennan, one of the city’s top commercial tenant representation advisors, has joined Jones Lang LaSalle, as a Managing Director in San Francisco. Brennan is a 20-year veteran of tenant advisory services and has frequently been named to CoStar Group’s annual national list of “Power Brokers” as well as being recognized as one of the city’s top tenant rep consultants by the San Francisco Business Times.

He joins the firm from Studley where he specialized in tenant rep advisory in the office sector.

Prior to joining Studley, Brennan was responsible for opening the Staubach Company’s San Francisco office in 1999. Prior to that, he was with Jones Lang Wootton. Both the Staubach Company and Jones Lang Wootton are today part of Jones Lang LaSalle. (Note to reporters: Jones Lang Wootton merged with LaSalle Partners in 1999 to become Jones Lang LaSalle. Staubach Company merged with Jones Lang LaSalle in 2008).

“Kevin is one of the city’s top tenant representatives and we are delighted to welcome him back to what is now arguably the most experienced tenant rep bench in Northern California,” said Elizabeth Hearle, Market Director for Jones Lang LaSalle in San Francisco. Hearle observed that the firm –as evidenced by the Staubach merger last year – had made an ongoing commitment to provide clients with a deep bench of tenant rep expertise and Brennan’s appointment clearly adds to that commitment.

Brennan is a member of CoreNet Global and an associate member of the American Bar Association and San Francisco Bar Association. He is chairman of the board of directors of the Young Entrepreneurs at Haas (YEAH) at the School of Business at UC Berkeley and was formerly on the board of Raphael House, San Francisco’s first family homeless shelter. He holds a B.A. in Political Science from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA).
