Camden Dulles Station Hosts Local Art Exhibit

Upscale Residential Community Provides Venue for LRA's 'ArtsCapade'

November 10, 2009, Herndon, VA—Camden Dulles Station, is pleased to announce 'ArtsCapade', an annual art exhibition presented by The League of Reston Artists. ArtsCapade will feature photography, paintings, sculpture and multimedia art works by artists from the Washington DC metro area. The exhibition will be on view at Camden Dulles Station from November 15, 2009-January 9, 2010.

The two month long exhibition will begin November 15 with a reception from 1pm to 6pm hosted by Camden Dulles Station at 2320 Dulles Station Blvd., Herndon, VA. The reception includes hors d'oeuvres from Atlas Spices and wine tasting will be presented courtesy of Old House Vineyards. Other sponsors include Whole Foods Market, Reston Limousine, Washington First Bank and Red, Hot & Blue BBQ Grill.

Canned or dried food donations for Reston Interfaith (www.restoninterfaith.org) are suggested.

The League of Reston Artists (LRA) is an active and enthusiastic volunteer-run group of diverse visual fine artists, photographers, and supporters of the arts residing in the Washington D.C. Metropolitan area. LRA's mission is to provide its members with opportunities to grow, learn, and exhibit and to provide the community the experience of a wide range of fine art.

Camden Dulles Station is a pet friendly, upscale residential community offering one, two and three bedroom apartment homes and a wide range of amenities including built in bookcases, door-to-door trash pick up and walking trails.
