Jones Lang LaSalle Appoints Jeff James as Senior Manager of Financial and Market Analysis in Seattle

SEATTLE, March 2, 2010 – Jones Lang LaSalle announced the appointment of Jeff James as Senior Manager in charge of financial and market analysis in the firm's Northwest office.

Before joining Jones Lang LaSalle, Mr. James was vice president in charge of research and analysis in Macquarie Bank's Real Estate Structured Finance group where he analyzed over $500 million in real estate financings. Prior to that, he was with the Seattle office of Cushman & Wakefield.

"Jeff will bring invaluable support to the Northwest team through his very strong background in valuation, commercial brokerage and investment banking including lease structuring, underwriting of investment sales, tax and GAAP based analysis," said Gary Danklefsen, Managing Director in charge of Jones Lang LaSalle's Pacific Northwest office.

Mr. James is a graduate of the University of Washington and holds the Appraisal Institute's MAI designation. He has served as a certified instructor for the Appraisal Institute in Standards of Professional Practice and the Code of Professional Ethics.
