Jones Lang LaSalle Announces Greg Levi Joins Firm as Managing Director in Sacramento

SACRAMENTO, April 19, 2010 — Jones Lang LaSalle announced today that it has further expanded its team in Northern California with the hiring of 23-year real estate veteran Greg Levi as Managing Director in Sacramento.

“Greg’s talent, tenure and reputation in sales and leasing of downtown Sacramento office and suburban assets, as well as his extensive tenant representation experience, greatly enhances our client service bench in the city,” said Tom Maloney, Managing Director, Jones Lang LaSalle.

Levi joins the firm from CB Richard Ellis where he was consistently one of the firm’s top producers in Sacramento between 1994 and 2009. He was responsible for many significant office building leasing assignments including five of the newest office high rise buildings in downtown Sacramento, as well as many major suburban properties. He has been regularly recognized by the Sacramento Business Journal as one of the ‘Heavy Hitters’ in Sacramento real estate. “The addition of a seasoned professional like Greg Levi to our brokerage team is testimony to the strength of Jones Lang LaSalle in Sacramento,” Maloney adds.

Levi is a member of the Association of Commercial Real Estate (ACRE) as well as several local philanthropic organizations and serves as a board member for the Sacramento Men’s Club charity based organization. He also provides pro bono real estate consulting and leasing services to the Sacramento Philharmonic Orchestra and WEAVE (Women Escaping a Violent Environment). Levi holds a B.A. in Business Administration from the University of San Diego.

Jones Lang LaSalle’s Northern California operation has major offices in San Francisco, Palo Alto, Walnut Creek and Sacramento and more than 800 employees in the region offering a broad range of real estate expertise including agency leasing, tenant representation, brokerage, capital markets advisory, project development, property and facilities management, sustainability and energy services and real estate consulting.
