Great Wall to Kick Off Fourth of July Weekend

Oakland, CA, June 29, 2010-- On July 2, the Great Wall of Oakland presents "The Projects of Summertime," featuring the most diverse group of artists yet to be screened on the wall. Artists Amos Mulder of the Netherlands, Conor Finnegan of Ireland, Colin Rich of California, Taras Gesh of Russia, Zweizwei of Republic of Belarus, Diego Stocco of California, So-Me of France and Sean Donnelly of California will kick off the Fourth of July weekend with screenings of their summertime artistic concepts.

Every first Friday of the month, a series of 100-foot by 100-foot moving images are projected onto the back wall of 2201 Broadway. The Wall faces West Grand Avenue between Broadway and Valley Street, next door to Luka's Taproom and Lounge in Oakland's Uptown district. The Uptown and Downtown Districts in Oakland, along with the Oakland Museum of California, are major sponsors of the Great Wall of Oakland, which uses cutting edge video motion art.

For over three years, the Great Wall of Oakland has been curating shows of various types of video art including animation, computer-generated art, live-action film, documentary-style video and other innovative forms of art from artists worldwide.
